Can I use FTP to submit my report?

No, if you have especially large report files to submit, please use our web upload form (see Submitting Your Electronic Report for details). You may also break large files up into smaller files and send us those files.